

104TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 101

Expressing the sense of Congress with respect to certain court orders relating to the desegregation of schools.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 14, 1995

Mr. LIPINSKI (for himself and Mr. HYDE) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of Congress with respect to certain court orders relating to the desegregation of schools.

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that each
3 court of the United States currently having in force any
4 decree or other order respecting the desegregation of
5 schools should, if the decree or order has been in effect
6 for more than three years, reconsider that order to deter-
7 mine whether the means chosen to achieve desegregation
8 are currently effective in the light of any changed facts
9 and to make any modifications necessary, consistent with

2

- 1 serving the educational needs of the children and a ration-
- 2 al allocation of the taxpayers' money.

○